Spotlight comes up on Narrator. Narrator is SR sitting on the edge of the stage, legs dangling off. The set is behind them and consists of the grandparents' house. All that is needed inside is a coat rack (where his snow suit hangs) a bed, and two doors (one on the side to enter the house and one on the back for the family to leave "Andrew's room") one on one side of a wall. On the other side of the wall is a kitchen that also has two doors (one that connects to Andrew's room and one on the back to go to the bathroom).

NARRATOR: This is a story about a young boy named Andrew. One day Andrew's mother and father were taking him to see his grandma and grandpa. Before they put him in the car his mother said,

Spotlight comes up Andrew, Mom, and Dad. They are standing in the middle of one of the aisles next to the wall next to a large piece of cardboard/whatever fashioned into a car.

MOM

Andrew, do you have to go pee?

ANDREW

No, no, no, no, no.

DAD

Andrew, do you have to go pee?

ANDREW

No, no, no, no, no. I have decided never to pee again.

NARRATOR

So they put Andrew into the car, fastened his seatbelt and gave him lots of books, and lots of toys, and lots of crayons, and drove off down the road

While the narrator is talking Andrew, Mom, and Dad get inside the car and Andrew holds up a book, a toy, and a box of crayon.

WHOLE FAMILY

Vroom, vroom, vroom

Mom and Dad hold up the car by the windows/doors and begin to shuffle down the aisle

ANDREW! DO YOU HAVE TO GO PEE?

ANDREW

No, no, no, no, no.
