

CHARACTER INTERVIEW

On a separate sheet of paper and using complete sentences, type or write neatly your answers to the following questions: (Answer as if you ARE the character.)

1. What is your name, how old are you, what is your occupation, and where do you live?
2. How would you describe yourself in three words?
3. How would the other characters in the story describe you?
4. What is the most important thing you trying to accomplish in the story?
5. What plan have you created to achieve your goal?
6. Why is someone trying to stop you from achieving your goal and what does that character have to lose or gain?
7. What will happen if you don't achieve your goal?
8. How would you feel about the outcome?
9. Will that feeling affect your choices and actions in the story? Explain.
10. How does this story represent a pivotal moment in your life?

CHARACTER INTERVIEW

On a separate sheet of paper and using complete sentences, type or write neatly your answers to the following questions: (Answer as if you ARE the character.)

1. What is your name, how old are you, what is your occupation, and where do you live?
2. How would you describe yourself in three words?
3. How would the other characters in the story describe you? (Give 3 examples)
4. What is the most important thing you are trying to accomplish in the story?
5. What plan(s) have you created to achieve your goal?
6. Why is someone trying to stop you from achieving your goal and what does that character have to lose or gain?
7. What will happen if you don't achieve your goal?
8. How would you feel about the outcome?
9. Will that feeling affect your choices and actions in the story? Explain.
10. How does this story represent a pivotal moment in your life?